

Paradise

Future Palace

Take me into this paradise

I've changed
I lost a lot of light that lit inside me, now
There's barely something able to Wake me, wake me up, make me feel
Excited (Excited)
Break this up, break this up, break this up
I am petrifying

I'm a stone cold soul, dancing on my own
To feel the burn inside my bones

I feel like the rain, dripping away, dripping away
I run from this pain, I can't escape, I can't
Why can't I find a place to hide?
A hopeful dream of a future paradise
A future paradise

Tell me why, tell me why, tell me why
They don't shut up
Yeah I try, yeah I try
So hard to get up

I'm a stone cold soul, dancing on my own
To feel the burn inside my bones

I feel like the rain, dripping away, dripping away
I run from this pain, I can't escape, I can't
Why can't I find a place to hide?
A hopeful dream of a future paradise
A future paradise

A hopeful dream, my future's near
Running at full speed (At full speed)
A hopeful dream, my future's near
Take me into this paradise

Will I finally find my happiness? (A hopeful dream)
Recover from all that has passed (My future's near)
Tell me, is it worth it to survive (Running at full speed)
Until I reach my future paradise?

I feel like the rain, dripping away, dripping away
I run from this pain, I can't escape, I can't
Why can't I find a place to hide?
A hopeful dream of a future paradise
A future paradise
