

Sleep Tight

Future Palace

Butterflies, a blue sky
Everything is pretty but we still cry
Generation Z are we adults yet?
'Cause I'm wishing for a bullet to shoot through my head

Help me out of here
These monsters will eat me up
Why can't I see clearly?
They are scraping my eyes out

But everything is nice here, it will be alright dear
Don't worry too much it's just a nightmare

Sleep tight to hide from my fears
But inside my entire world bleeds
I sleepwalk through this hell of earth
I'm awake in a nightmare
A tide of war and peace
Give me a break I'm begging you please
I drench, is this a dream or not?
Is this all just a nightmare?

I pinch my skin
Nails are sinking in
Is this reality or am I just a little dim?
Turn the lights on, blast a loud song
But I still feel numb, guess that something must be wrong
Help me out of here
Why can't I see clearly
They are scraping my eyes out

But everything is nice here, it will be alright dear
Don't worry too much it's just a nightmare

Sleep tight to hide from my fears
But inside my entire world bleeds
I sleepwalk through this hell of earth
I'm awake in a nightmare
A tide of war and peace
Give me a break I'm begging you please
I drench, is this a dream or not?
Is this all just a nightmare?

I see the stars, I see their lights
How much more do I have to try?
To feel a spark of a resting mind
Tell me how much do I have to try?
I see the stars, I see their lights
How much more do I have to try?
To feel the spark of a resting mind
Tell me how much do I have to try?
