OK I wake up in the morning
With a bitch I don't even know
And its Sunday morning
And church i don't even go
Trap or die young jeezy and go
Time to let the people know
I can't count the time
We done hit the convenient store
Real shit I had to let that true religion and jeezy go
I've seen too many people in it
I ain't saying leave the store

Follow me on twitter hoe
Y'all talking bricks

But bitch we just got rid of four
