

I tried to spit you out
A bittersweet taste in my mouth
Before I could think about it I just swallowed you down
A tragic instinct, a delicate moth flies to the flame
The spark that lights you up burns you to the ground, yea

But I'm doin fine now
I'm feelin alive again
I opened my eyes
To the see it all brand new

I took your number down
I musta got your name all wrong
Now I can't use it in the chorus of my song
But I'm finally over you
Tears come from laughing too
Life's a joke and I was the just true punch line for you

But I'm doin fine now
I'm feelin alive again
I opened my eyes
To the see it all brand new

With all the variety
I crave the taste of everything
So I forgive you now baby
Cause We're one and the same

Cause I'm doin fine now
I'm feeling alive again
I opened my eyes to see the flowers bloom
Now I realize you gotta water their thorns too

I'm doin fine now I'm takin a ride again
Cheers to the good times
Here but gone too soon
A simple excuse
Allow yourself to bloom
