

Dirty D

Futurebirds

Please be responsible when you're hauling my pink couch
Please take care, the driveways around here tend to slouch Thought Dirty D could take on an elephant, even the whole MS-13 Those gangsters in Mexico would've loved to get their hands on such a fine killing machine

Such a fine killing machine
Such a fine killing machine

Dirty D took one good hit, but the second silenced his roar
One hit was enough for taking, but the second ruined pinky's dé cor
The grill was no longer smiling, I could tell (I could tell) by the chrome in his nose
The impractical bastard was dead, I was happy... his story was closed

Dirty D's not gone, he's here staring at me
The Dirty D won't die, no, he refuses to sleep
I'm so mad I can barely speak Go to sleep... Go to sleep...
