

Heavy Weights

Futurebirds

Too late for words to say
I try to speak 'em anyway
I bring my lies to the table
Weathered by the storm
This alabaster stone
Is waiting on the chisel

Quick to speak your mind
It's all the same when you die
When you die
It's in the night
It's no surprise

Can't we negotiate (negotiate)
It's famous last words you say
And you see it coming
Try to make a getaway
It's not to retaliate
For an awful blunder

Quick to speak your mind
It's all the same when you die
When you die
It's in the night
It's no surprise
