

Tan Lines

Futurebirds

Sending you pictures from the nekked beach but all I want is yo u here nekked with me
So I snacked on some leftover Christmas, and I know we may say hurtful things
But it's not out of spite, just tryin to keep it light Just hate I had to settle for dreamin of you tonight, you tonig ht

I know it's awful those tan lines
I know it's all within those lines
I know it's hard keepin it in line
I know it's awful those tan lines

Scanning the channels at the budget inn, just wishing that this weekend would end
It's been carrying on now for 2 months too long, and it's only just settling in Livin alone in all time zones, just trying to get you to lay do wn on the phone
No tell her home

I know it's awful those tan lines
I know it's all within those tan lines
I know it's hard keepin it in line
I know it's awful those tan lines
