

The Light

Futurebirds

Adventures on wall
Splashing soap up and down your hall
Not caring about the things you lost

Baby when you gonna see that, this life just just ain't gonna b e
Your beginning to see the light
Oh baby why you wait so long, to get back home Oh baby why you wait, you know I'll be late, and you'll be ston
ed

Cryin on the bathroom floor, with the broken mirror shattered o ff the door
It's been way past too long ago

Baby when you gonna see that, this life just just ain't gonna b
Your beginning to see the light
Oh baby why you wait so long, to get back home
ed

Home you're on the porch again, sittin by yourself to no end I wish I left the back window unhinged

Baby when you gonna see that, this life just just ain't gonna b
But your beginning to see the light
Oh baby why you wait so long, to get back home
ed
