

Better by Myself

Futuristic

Ooh, yeah
Why you always trippin' on the good life?
You say you is simple but it's all lies
You need more attention on your defy
I already gave you all my free time
Please don't make me take it there
I've been in my bag, gotta leave you in my past
Then you reappear, tell me why you're back, throw the thing on my lap
You don't make it fair, you know what I think, about to do all that
Let me make it fair, I ain't never gonna change, I ain't never going back

I do better when I'm by myself
Dealin' with you ain't good for my health, ah no
Baby you should be with someone else
'Cause I do better when I'm by myself
I do better!, hey
I do better when I'm by myself (By myself)
I do better when I'm by myself (By myself, yeah)
Baby you should be with someone else
'Cause I do better when I'm by myself

I go subtle 'cause it's all I know
I hope that you can wait for me while I go
I don't want your number, maybe one day
I'm hoping that we can end up in the same space
Until then I'ma do this
Pick up, who this?, don't be foolish
Lovin' usin', that's the true it cycle, no it's stupid
Might've ruined somethin', yeah I knew it but you do it
I'm amused with music, you just spinnin' Truman
Let me do this

I do better when I'm by myself
Dealin' with you ain't good for my health, ah no
Baby you should be with someone else
'Cause I do better when I'm by myself
I do better!, hey
I do better when I'm by myself (By myself)
I do better when I'm by myself (By myself)
Baby you should be with someone else (Someone else, yeah)
'Cause I do better when I'm by myself

Got my choices, I got voices fighting in my head
I know I got problems, God can't solve them
He left me all
