Got that game up on my back and I'm not even kinda sore
You done fell in love with a girl that's not even kinda yours
Bro, I been doing this too long it seems like second nature I mean Whoa, I been making all these hit songs that are wack when compared to

Oh, all y'all used to be good like the Los Angeles Lakers
If they on my neck I make 'em disappear just like a (tape worm)
(Close to trace) it might get ugly. Taking shots, don't Elmer Fudd me
When my songs come up they make a face like they smell something funk

But Imma get something to eat, Devvon kill 'em
Y'all rest in peace, sheesh!

I wish you could see
I see that your team don't make no noise on my radar
You fear us, when you see us, that you breathing heavy like Darth Vader

Selling all that shit that I used like your name was eBay
Coming for you, yelling mayday, I don't care if it's your B-day
Keeping my head in the game or you could call a nigga EA Futuristic
Pass the ball, sound like we running a relay
Hit 'em again, and again, and again. Like we till stuttering (til it

Follow the leader

How could I ever mislead ya?

Squad is so big you shaking like seizures
Call up the doctor and tell 'em you need her
Hit em so hard that they needin procedures
I can't believe it, I look at my DM
Alone with your girl at the Garden of Eden
Washing these niggas, I'm feeling so tired
Somebody pass the detergent, you are so worthless
I don't think that, you deserve it

Where did you learn this? I've never heard it
