

Ego

Futuristic

Yo
Sometimes my ego get in the way
Sometimes my ego keep me in change
Yeah
Sometimes my ego get on the page
Sometimes my ego isn't the same
Look
Is that a good thing or bad thing?
It's more the intent
I know where I'm going, I live in the moment, I already know where I went Already know what I spent
Already know who get jealous, I know where I can't go and vent
Know I invent
So you'll never get it, so I ain't go sit here and try to convince Don't sit on the fence, I'm jumping in
I make some money and double it
Left those who I got in trouble with Keeping it fresh like it's double mint
Don't really run with the government
My brotherhood was a brother-ship
And it sailed
Your whole life, you tried to drag me down
And you failed
My ego is unnecessary evil, my competitive drive
Knew I had more to do, my ego is what kept me alive
Give to my team, them is my sequels
I be letting them thrive
My ego wouldn't help the people if I kept it inside

I gotta big ego
Yuh
Such a huge ego
Yuh yuh
It go everywhere that we go
The chosen one, yeah, it seem so
I wouldn't be no way if I ain't have my ego

Big headed
But I heard that's what you like
Confidence and cockiness are switching sides
Woah, yeah
Too strong when I'm at my peak
Yeah
Make cash off the words I speak
Yeah
Work hard 7 days a week
Poetry in motion they can't catch me like a big foot
I outwork the others, ain't no options in my framework
That's just how my brain works
That's why I can't complain, I stay the same, that's how this game works
Imma have last laughs
Woah, yeah

I gotta big ego
Yuh
Such a huge ego
Yuh yuh

It go everywhere that we go
The chosen one, yeah, it seem so
I wouldn't be no way if I ain't have my ego
