

Feel Again

Futuristic

I just wanna feel again
Something, anything
I just wanna feel again
Someone, anyone

Somebody take me back
Someone leave a scratch
I'm picking at the scab
I just wanna laugh
Who got a joke to crack?
Falling at the facts
I just wanna cry sometimes
Someone make me sad
Come with an attack
Someone make me glad
Take the pressure off my back
Picking up the slack

I just wanna feel like
I'm actually living real life
Going through the motions
Everybody still hype
Don't think that they get it
Always talking steady
Don't know where I'm heading but

I just wanna feel again
Something, anything
I just wanna feel again
Someone, anyone
Yeah you make me feel
I just wanna feel
Yeah you, yeah you make me feel
I just wanna feel

Yeah
Tell me what is love
I felt it all before
I had to let it go
I always gave too much
You was putting on a show
I'm moving way too slow
Now my wall is up
I don't give enough
I don't let em' in
I don't ever jump
This ain't double-Dutch
We don't keep in touch
Always in a rush
I done did too much

I just cannot feel what I used to feel
I just cannot deal how I used to deal
This cannot be real, this cannot be real
Maybe I just need to heal, maybe I should chill

I just wanna feel again

Something, anything
Someone, anyone
Yeah you, yeah you make me feel
I just wanna feel
Yeah you, yeah you make me feel
I just wanna feel

I've been wrapped in all these emotions
Now I'm so broken
That I don't notice
Now I don't feel at all
I've been wrapped in all these emotions
Now I'm so broken
That I don't notice
Now I don't feel at all

I just wanna feel again
Something, anything
Someone, anyone
Yeah you, yeah you make me feel
I just wanna feel
Yeah you, yeah you make me feel
I just wanna feel
