

Hate Me Now

Futuristic

You
You're gonna hate me now
I'm turning upside down
I don't wanna take you round and round
Round and round
It's true
I don't wanna let you down
I hate the way that sounds
We can't keep going round and around
Round and around

Really wish I didn't have to say this (Say this)
Promise you you'll always be my favorite, yeah
I think we should go our separate ways 'cause (separate ways 'cause)
Everything we been doing the same, yeah, yeah
And you feel it too because you won't admit
It's the right thing we should do (Should do)
And I feel for you, I been there too
It's why I know that

You
You're gonna hate me now
I'm turning upside down
I don't wanna take you round and round
Round and round
It's true
I don't wanna let you down
I hate the way that sounds
We can't keep going round and around
Round and around

Ayo, we kept running in circles, now we dizzy
[?] I'm a piece of work, you're always down with getting busy
You looking for a boss, well I own everything like Disney
They calling me the man the way I run my fucking city
You ain't with me, y'all see the disgust
The foundation we been building on just turned to dust
I put a knife inside your back, just know with every cut
You ain't the only one that hates me
Girl, there's two of us, I'm the one that's ruined us

'Cause you
You're gonna hate me now
I'm turning upside down
I don't wanna take you round and round
Round and round
It's true
I don't wanna let you down
I hate the way that sounds

I hate to watch you go but now we grown, I can't hold on (Nah)
I really thought that we could make it work but I was wrong (wrong)
I shoulda told you sooner but I knew that this would hurt (this would hurt)
I always thought that you would be the one to do it first
And I feel for you, I been there too

It's why I know that

You're gonna hate me
You're gonna hate me
Hate me now

You
I'm turning upside down
Round and round
It's true
I don't wanna let you down
