

I WIN

Futuristic

Look at where I been I win
Forgivin' for my sins amen
Did it for my kids I did
Look at who I'm is I win
Put yo hands in the sky if u up
Put yo hands in the sky if u down
Put yo hands in the sky if u lost
Put yo hands in the sky if u found

I wasn't supposed to be here
Ain't nobody clean the roads I thought that they would sweep here
Popped off early sooner than I thought like it was leap year
Dodged a bullet moved out to AZ check the degrees here the block is hot
I was stealin', partyin' and runnin' way from cops a lot
Hit the streets wit open drinks and gettin' cheeks in parkin' lots
College classes failed em like my songs they got dropped a lot
Mad at dad ain't realize that till I would act like pops a lot
Disregarded God a lot
It was always shot a clock
He told me stop like octagons
Relationships was polygons
I threw the hands so many times I thought I needed Tommy John
I went to jail it never fails and now my bars from droppin' lines

Look at where I been I win
Forgivin' for my sins amen
Did it for my kids I did
Look at who I'm is I win
Put yo hands in the sky if u up
Put yo hands in the sky if u down
Put yo hands in the sky if u lost
Put yo hands in the sky if u found

I wasn't supposed to get a here
Growin' up I had to take the bus there wasn't Lyft here
Snot was frozen to my face I wipe it off and sit here
Gave my momma money as a kid I helped wit rent here
I was printin' map quest tryin' to escape wit my dogs
Everynight was on Limewire watchin' them jawns
The visions runnin' through my memories I stopped wit the jogs
And now I'm runnin' wit my father know it's all in his palms
Got a house wit the palms and the pool gettin' warm
And the food is organic and the mood is adorn
I got tough from the scuffles
A rose that grew with the thorns
Rap book is full of pages the paper made me some more I told em

Look at where I been I win
Forgivin' for my sins amen
Did it for my kids I did
Look at who I'm is I win
Put yo hands in the sky if u up
