

Keep You Warm

Futuristic

So girl, I gotta know
Are you in this house alone, girl, are you lonely?
I'm not like them other men, girl, get to know me
'Cause I'ma keep you warm when it's cold outside
When it's cold outside

Focus on your body
Let me show you a thing or two
You been unappreciated lately
Let me get a little case of you
So [?], hey
I don't know but it's all that, hey
Girl, don't you play your tricks on me
I'm too real, I guarantee that
We lay back and kick it, we gon' fall in love
'Cause I am not typical, no I'm not playing round 'bout us
I know that it might sound silly
But the [?] way too pretty girl
Only one thing's on my mind

Girl, I gotta know
Are you in this house alone, girl, are you lonely?
I'm not like them other men, girl, get to know me
'Cause I'ma keep you warm when it's cold outside
When it's cold outside, when it's cold
It's that kinda love
Are you in this house alone, girl, are you lonely?
I'm not like them other men, girl, get to know me
'Cause I'ma keep you warm when it's cold outside
When it's cold outside

Damn
I know your ex, little homie too lame
All he wanna do is eat snacks, play games
All I wanna do is make racks, make waves
Hot at night, keep you warm when I'm spitting these flames
You get it? The boy got jokes
People talk big but they all blow smoke
Over-promising and under-delivering, that's the worst
Like my first-born child, I'ma put you first
You been hurt so you insecure
You know that I'm a rapper so you isn't sure
You like country most the time
Except the song 'bout the boots with the big-ass fur
I'm a big-ass nerd and you a goofy chick
I got a way with words, I'm sticking to my script
Double cupped in the cut with a cool little sip
How you magnum cum laude but you stupid thick, ugh

Girl, I gotta know
Are you in this house alone, girl, are you lonely?
I'm not like them other men, girl, get to know me
'Cause I'ma keep you warm when it's cold outside
When it's cold outside, when it's cold outside
It's that kinda love
Are you in this house alone, girl, are you lonely?
I'm not like them other men, girl, get to know me

'Cause I'ma keep you warm when it's cold outside
When it's cold outside
