

Not For You

Futuristic

I'm renewed since I found out it was all for you
All for you
Yeah
Make a move
If I told you that it's
Not for you
Not for you
What would you do

Look
You chase dreams but what for
Don't lose your happiness on the pursuit for more
What would you do if you lost it all in the moment
In the game of life who really keeping
Score
What if the plan wasn't really the plan
Would you have faith and leave it all in his hands
What if your purpose was different than what you thought huh
Would you be ready to draw a line in the sand
Understand that this life is temporary we live
Blessings and abundance is given because of him
Those who ain't deserving
Still looking like they gone flourish
But that's only on the surface it's deeper than what it is Different than what we see on algorithms and feeds
We running in wrong directions and picking up all the speed
The fruit is falling from trees
It's ready to be received
The weight I carried was heavy realize it wasn't for me

I'm renewed since I found out it was all for you
All for you
Yeah
Make a move
If I told you that its not for you
Not for you
What would you do

Lights camera action
The temptation
Hundred reasons I gotta go out and be famous
Pried talking too much
I had to rearrange it
Full apology to God, I finally had to face it
Had a big show booked last summer
Nice flyer with my big face on the cover
Heard a lot of people bought tickets to the show felt good till the Lord went and switched up the flow 20 minutes to my set button then the service kept going
Heaven came down
It was a Holy Ghost moment
Three hours passed a lot of people headed home
Heard the eagle but I stayed in my zone
Only rap for 20 people that night but God had better plans
The late night drew in a really large man
He gave his heart to God now I finally understand
None of this about me when I'm living in his hand

I'm renewed since I found out it was all for you
All for you
Yeah
Make a move
If I told you that its not for you
Not for you
What would you do
Look
You chase dreams but what for
Don't lose your happiness on the pursuit for more
