

Sedona

Futuristic

Swimming in all your tears, you
Breathing in all your fears, babe
Reminisce all of your years is all you do
Grimacing all in the mirror
Intimidated by your fears, you
Living but it ain't sincere, I know that's true
You see the posing, you just compare, oh
It ain't there
You gotta know they ain't playing fair
All of the filters [?]
You got something I'm so aware, oh
Baby, don't be scared
Lower yourself, oh no, don't you dare
Matter fact

Please don't feel so alone
Sedona is where we'll go
Just leave your phone at home
All that you need is not what it seems
All in a scream, baby
Please don't feel so alone
Sedona is where we'll go
Just leave your phone at home
All that you need is not what it seems
All in a scream, baby

All of these women I see
Perfect in pictures but that just ain't me
You can't change my mind
Am I enough for you really or do you want more?
The way that you look at them makes me unsure
I need to know, I need to know
Or leave me alone, mmh
