

Snow Day

Futuristic

I played hooky on a
Double G

I played hooky on a snow day
Got fired from my job they can blow me
Cause they don't really want me to succeed
Work my hands until they bleed knock him to his knees
Dollar signs above his head he should've got a damn degree
Woah though hold up
I won't give up
I'll shred the slopes
And pen them dope
Tunes
That make me prove and groove it I'll lose it
Circle small a period just do it and move to the music
Yeah
Hot cocoa for the snowfall
We rolled ten and smoked eight
Its indica left for the snowball
I'm seeing the messages of all of the people I grew up with they all like Greg's hard
I wrote this in an igloo went next gen I earned hearts uhhh

I played hooky on a snow day
Got fired from my job they can blow me
Now I'm sitting here breaking down this OZ
Can't go back to the days of drinking Rozay
No way
Jose
Hey!
I got fired on a snow day
Snow day
I played hooky they can blow me
Blow me
Yeah haha
On a snow day on a snow day

Rather be back at the crib
Wrapped up with the baddest chick
Pour it up then pass the sip
Know how it get when Zach get lit
Had a job I couldn't keep it
Figured be best if I leave it
Sellin sneakers sellin tree to sellin verses killing features
Locked up in my room on a snow day
Know that everything is gone be ok baby
Swear this reminds me of the old days
Playing GTA at my mom's place yeah
Yo is Grand Theft Auto how I stole the drive?
Yung determined never worried how the boy was getting by Faith in me was plain to see I had that look up in my eye
Cold as snow I wrote the flow you know I

Played hooky on a snow day
Got fired from my job they can blow me
Now I'm sitting here breaking down this OZ
Can't go back to the days of drinking Rozay

No way
Jose
