

Tough Love

Futuristic

Yeah, oh you found love, huh
But you 'bout to fuck it up, huh
Yeah, cause you too insecure about yourself from your past
So it's hard for you to trust, huh
So you take it out on me, I see what it's gonna be Memories come to my mind of somebody who would scream
At the top of their lungs cause they just couldn't believe
I was everything I said, I was everything they see
Steady going through my phone, look for things that don't exist
You ruin good nights when I'm out with my friends
And when I get home you accuse me of the worst
Filling up your head with some shit I never did
With some shit I never do to you
I'm tryna get though to you
Can't be just some dude to you
I'm tryna give you love
So I need respect
Healthy communication
I need a little space and whole lot of trust
For this though love

Yeah, tough love
Glad we got a tough love
Everybody need tough love
Tough love, this is tough love

Tough love
I'm glad we got a tough love
Everybody need tough love
This is tough love (yeah)

You might be the one, huh (tough love)
But I'm bout to fuck it up, huh (yeah)
I'd be way too scared to commit
Cause my parents split when I was just a young blood (look)
I can't go through that again so I never open up
And when you get upset, I be ready for the jump
Cause you get irritated, tryna tell me what you want
And it feels like we're fighting so I say I've had enough
I won't do confrontation cause I'm working on my temper
I'd rather go get drunk and do some shit I don't remember
I'd rather text somebody who gonna tell me what I wanna hear
Act like they're better and tell me to forget ya
It always seems better when it's on the other side
Until you kick it with 'em and you finally realize
That love is a choice, there's some things I don't like
But why would I take a slice when I got the whole pie
Yeah, this is tough love

Yeah, tough love
Glad we got a tough love
Everybody need tough love
Tough love, this is tough love

Tough love
I'm glad we got a tough love
Everybody need tough love

This is tough love (yeah)
