

Winter Snow

Futuristic

Snowflakes, yeah
Your embrace

Snowflakes turn into tears and leave the ice on your face
In this August heat I feel December in your embrace
Feel like wintertime in these summer nights (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Feel like wintertime, baby, saw me right (yeah, yeah, yeah)

Tell me what's wrong, when I hold you, I get frostbit
Where's it from? This draft is so familiar
And you're back to me, no call or text back to me
I say the way that I been feeling feel wack to me
I'd rather be inside the trap with a gat to me than feel this, uh
This ain't like you, I ain't tryna fight with you, oh shit
What's a nigga with a attitude to do when you turn ice cube? Oh, man
Feel like wintertime in these summer nights
Feel like wintertime but it's summer, but it's summer

Snowflakes that turn to tears and leave the ice on your face
In this August heat I feel December in your embrace
Feel like wintertime in these summer nights (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Feel like wintertime, baby, saw me right (yeah, yeah, yeah)

Yo, it's hot outside
When I open up the door but you not outside
I changed for you, became unrecognizable
We both know that I'm not that guy
But I tried for you, yeah
Tell the truth, you ain't wanna hear it
So I had to lie to you
To get back inside of you
I'd ride for you

And that's true, but it's hard to tell
I got demons running round me like Gargamel
You had a vision way back when we crossed paths
Then we both crashed, what we had didn't start that well
Look how hard you fell and I caught the feels
Came up on a roll then I lost the wheels
Catching flights for the night just to hold you in my arms
But it never panned out so I take what's real, and that's

Snowflakes that turn to tears and leave the ice on your face
In this August heat I feel December in your embrace
Feel like wintertime in these summer nights (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Feel like wintertime, baby, saw me right (yeah, yeah, yeah)
