

You Said It

Futuristic

You said it did you mean it, baby
You said it when you for real
I said it and I meant it, baby
I said it, I mean it still

You said that you love me
You said that you want me
You said you don't ever wanna be with someone else
I said that I love you
I said that I want you
I said that I always wanna keep it to myself
Yeah, I said it and I meant it, baby
I said it, I mean it still
You said it but did you mean it, baby?
You said it when you for real

But now you with somebody else
Texting me dreams that you still have about me
Reminiscing, catching memories, get a laugh about me
I always knew that if you'd left, I'd lose the half about me
Now when I'm with anybody else then they have to doubt me
'Cause they know that deep down it was you I chose Plant it in the concrete, watched you grow like a perfect rose
You try to be with someone else but it hurts your soul
And found out that I did the same thing and that's the worst to know
Yeah, I said what I said
Pulling at the thread know you all leave me on read, that's a bad
You got someone else, all up in your bed
But I know you steady wishing it was me instead
Running through my head
I know you tired you be doing laps
Smiling like everything is perfect, all you do is act (Act)
Looking back it seems like you done walked into a trap (Damn)
You my drug and I ain't even mad if I relapse

You said that you love me
You said that you want me
You said you don't ever wanna be with someone else
I said that I love you
I said that I want you
I said that I always wanna keep it to myself
Yeah, I said it and I meant it, baby
I said it, I mean it still
You said it but did you mean it, baby?
You said it when you for real

I know you got your friends spying on me like that's some sort of a game
Probably 'cause you stoned and realized that that new mans a lame
Tried to tell you, you ain't wanna hear and what else is new
You left me feeling like the sky had me singing a blues
Sitting there hella confused, girl
I admit it, I was lost though
Ever since you, I leveled up to a boss though
Everything come with a cause, guess I could see it now
Blinded by your beauty, should have known that was your [?] though
They say everything get better by time
And no matter what I'm doing, you run the back of my mind

Girls like you are hard to find, I'ma keep chasing that feeling
I know you been through a lot, I think that heart need some healing, girl
Yeah, you let me rock your boat, say I's your captain
Thought we had that type of love that's everlasting
Now you tryna act like all that shit never happened
Everybody including your momma know you cappin'

You said that you love me
You said that you want me
You said you don't ever wanna be with someone else
I said that I love you
I said that I want you
I said that I always wanna keep it to myself
Yeah I said it and I meant it, baby
I said it, I mean it still
You said it but did you mean it, baby?
You said it when you for real
