I know it's hard and difficult
To come into me
I know you're afraid
And don't wanna be hurt anymore

Even on the day I left you
I made you cry with cruel words
But I regretted it as soon as I turned around, I'm sorry

Please, just once more
If I could see you again
I don't care if I lose my everything

I wish I could meet you in my dreams
And love you again
Just like this

It might be easier to die
Than to receive your forgiveness
I'm singing this song
But I don't know if my true feelings will reach you

I hope you'll be happy
I couldn't even say those common lies
I'm only praying that you'll come back, I'm sorry

Please, just once more
If I could see you again
I don't care if I lose my everything
I wish I could meet you in my dreams
And love you again
Just like this

Now it's over, it's the last time
I can't believe it
I can't let go
Cause you never know
Someone like you for me, someone like me for you
There won't ever be a love like that again
Nobody knows
We always know

Please, just once more
If I could see you again
I don't care if I lose my everything
I wish I could meet you in my dreams
And love you again

After this time passes
And I only I can forget everything
Those memories, those happy memories
Or in the next life
I hope I can meet you and love you again
Just like before
