All Facts

G-Eazy

Why you on the 'Gram posting thirst traps?
Remember you supported all my first raps
Before the shit was popping, let's reverse that
Love don't cost a thing, this is all facts
Missed calls from each other with no callbacks
Now you mad and sending texts in ALL CAPS
You've been on my head, baseball caps
Love don't cost a thing, this is all facts
This is all facts

This not what I'm used to, yeah
Don't get petty on the 'Gram 'cause that's what you're doing
It's not the world's business, I'm just talking to you
Thinking I don't pay enough attention to you
Had the world in my palms, I gave it to you
Fell in love in NOLA like she got the voodoo
She won't wear the pants in this, remember you do
Never thought she'd do that for the clout, but who knew?
I mean like who knew?
Yeah, no one saw this coming
Meanin', this grew from nothing
Where it all falls down, we should of started running
But we started something, then she said herself
"If you don't give it to me I'ma get it somewhere else"

Why you on the 'Gram posting thirst traps?
Remember you supported all my first raps
Before the shit was popping, let's reverse that
Love don't cost a thing, this is all facts
Missed calls from each other with no callbacks
Now you mad and sending texts in ALL CAPS
You've been on my head, baseball caps
Love don't cost a thing, this is all facts
This is all facts

All facts, keep it a hundred with me, baby, keep it a whole M
We done had our differences but, bae, we still here
By my side, my ride-or-die, girl, you my best friend
I done told you shit I'll probably never tell my dogs
We was chiefing backstage, MTV Awards
I admit, at first I didn't think we'd get this far
You said, "Promise one thing, cut them bitches off"
I took you to Dover Street and bought you VETEMENTS
All the jewelry and the money, that ain't shit to you
I know we both booked and busy, we got shit to do
We used to make time, just to vibe
Tell me you ain't switching sides, switching sides

Why you on the 'Gram posting thirst traps?
Remember you supported all my first raps
Before the shit was popping, let's reverse that
Love don't cost a thing, this is all facts
Missed calls from each other with no callbacks
Now you mad and sending texts in ALL CAPS
You've been on my head, baseball caps
Love don't cost a thing, this is all facts
This is all facts
