

Blood

G-Eazy

Gangsta of the beats...

Drink in my cup, gas in my blunt,
Don't give a fuck, got me "so high"

I'm getting weed by by the ton, I'm getting purp by the gallon,
I'm putting weed in the blunt, I'm sipping lean out a chalice.

I love the drugs cause they help with the pain, I need my intake like everyday,
I got a plug and I know him by name, they say its bad but I don't wanna change.

I had to switch the game up, show em how we get it that's why every single song I be bringing something different
Man they saying that I'm hard and they play me through the system got me shooting for the stars everyday I go and get it
Just because I'm dropping songs doesn't mean they gotta listen but they do and I love it they the ones that hold me down
I can't forget em cause these others always hating distracting me from the vision I can't listen got no limits and I'm moving and on a mission

Not another person on this earth could be working as hard as me you get the picture.. photography this a whole different artistry

Call it verbal labotomy this a spiritual Odyssey wake em up like a coffee bean,
Throwing shade on a kid I can't stand this that's why I stay loyal to my dawg I tell a bitch to get off of me
From a peasant to a king I had to alter my prophecy trying to manifest my dreams I promise nobody stopping me but me..

Dueces.. You should just stop writing songs and just go out and party

Man fuck all that shit I got people depending on me and the rest are just heartless

So... There's bitches and weed homie go get it started
Forget it, I'm tired of everyone really can't deal with this nonsense

WOW.. Don't go all pussy on me now, I need you to stop it... Plus..

WHAT!

Your the one constantly talking bout getting it popp'n.. Guess what? They're saying Thoosay? insane cause he talks to his conscience

Awww. Fuck! That's why I keep to myself man I'm weighing my options...

And they wonder why I stay alone all the time and get fucked up

Man forget that shit for another minute
