And fuck whoever thought it wasn't that hard $1,500 dollar limit dreaming about a black card Aiming for the stars, with a rocket in the back yard Hard to keep a good girl, not trying to play that card But never had no cash to spend Need a whip? I ask a friend If I can't we'll stay in, even sweats you look attractive in Cook a meal at home, some yellow tail I pour a glass, pretend Smash all night then wake you up to smash again Felt like we could never do wrong, and you been down for too long There's nothing to improve on, that's why I could never move on From clippin' out a coupon, from sleeping on a futon To being driven in a presidential Lincoln or a Yukon And I know you always stay down for the cause You love me even for the flaws But don't do this shit for applause Soon as I get right then I'mma take care of you Swear I'm so prepared to love you Know it's no one there above you

My whole life has changed
Since you came in, I knew back then
You were that special one
I'm so in love, so deep in love
You make my life complete
You are so sweet, no one competes
Glad you came into my life
You blind me with your love, with you I have no sight

Yeah, pick it up where I left you at Never want to go have to go get you back Enough hard times, yeah we went through that Big ol' house, I'mma get you that Overseas trips, baby let's do that Lookin' at your face and I'm thinking' about the place where I met you at Yeah, and since day one, you supported these dreams Always stayed right by my side Trust, I notice these things Even way, way back When my buzz was dead like bee stings Broke as ever, when your vision's far it's tough to see things And whenever we ate out, we might split an entree Bank account with $3k, that's no relation to Andre And that would be a hot day save for rain, that's what my moms say I think just putting cash away is what she was trying to convey Cause money comes, money goes; People switch to funny roles Anyone would tell you that one good girl's worth twenty ho's Soon as I get right I'mma take care of you Swear I'm so prepared to love you Know it's no one there above you
