

Everything is Everything

G-Eazy

Haha

Yeah, uh

I hate you, I say, "Damn, I miss you"
Shootin' in Paris for that French Vogue issue
Wish I could teleport there just to kiss you
She models VS, yeah, she's so official
Life switched off, when'd it get so blissful?
Paper plane dreams, thought it all so simple
I told my ex that I love her while papered with a pencil
She said, "You chose this after all we've been through
A fuck boy, how could you be so forgetful?
You think they all real and they'll stay with you
And if you're that dumb, no matter, never fuck with you
You think you're that real 'til that limelight hits you"

Try the shoe on even if it don't fit you
They all see the problems, they all wanna fix you
Now it's a Saturday night, we gon' dance in that light
While I think to myself, goddamn, this ain't right, this ain't right

She said, "I'm over you" (This ain't right)
That's what you told me (It can't be right)
But I know the truth
She wants all me (Yeah)
Everything is everything they say (Yeah)
Everything is everything they say (Yeah)

It all depends on what you value
Figure this out on your own, nobody shows you how to
They tell me, "You're a product of the people that's around you"
My exes singin' bullshit on the air, I live without you
Wow, did anything stay with you?
When I fuck up, I think I might still miss you
Slipped one night, I sent a text and I hit you
Send me back a message like, "The fuck is wrong with you?"
Which one, argue, I ain't tryna argue
I know I lost you somewhere, but how far are you?
Life is a movie, you a always star
Should would tell me, wanted them houses and cars

'Til you would try on the life, even if it don't fit you
They all see the problems, they all wanna fix you
Now it's a Saturday night, we gon' dance in that light
While I think to myself, goddamn, goddamn, this ain't right

She said, "I'm over you" (It can't be right)
That's what you told me
But I know the truth
She wants all me (I see you, like)
Everything is everything they say (Just pick a side and just stick to the si de)
Everything is everything they say

Everything is everything they say
Uh-huh
They say there's three sides to every story

Everything is everything they say
The right side and the wrong side and my side
Everything is everything they say
Can I, can I just tell my story?
Everything is everything they say
Even if you don't hear this shit, it's whatever, yeah

Uh, you used to say we're meant to be, this was our destiny
Playin' back our last fight, that's when she said to me
"I was just a step to you, you wanna step on me
The last time you broke my heart, that was the death of we"
She said, "Congrats, you did it now, your dreams came true"
Let's get lost, you took to heart the words I sang you
I guess heights like these ain't got the same view
'Cause now I'm thinkin' I really lookin' at the same you
Chasin' ghosts, feel like I've seen this phantom before
Feel like I recognize this feelin', I've had it before
I tried to give my all to her, now she's askin' for more
She put me in the dog house, I crashed on the floor
Vanilla sky, guess you finally saw my ugly side
Some dirt come to the surface, it feels tough to hide
I feel the effects, I just got butterflies
Been openin' that door, but there's nothin' there on the other side
Yeah

Everything is everything they say
Everything is everything they say
Feel like The Matrix, how I open the door and there's a brick wall behind it
Everything is everything they say
Everything is everything they say
Why am I chasin' ghosts? I guess I'm tryna keep you close
Everything is everything they say
Everything is everything they say
