

In My Head

G-Eazy

All the things you said, all the things you said
Running through my head, running through my head
Running through my head
All the things you said, all the things you said
Running through my head, running through my head
All the things you said

I know I said "say less", but I wish you would say more
Every long text I send, I start to go insane more
Feel like your reply is what I've been waiting all day for
The harder that I push is only pushing you away more Thought you'd finally be the one I bought the Cartier for
But each time we're apart, it's like we always fight the same war
And when I'm not in town, what you out till 4 AM for?
If you ain't with somebody else then tell me what you stayed for
Uh, paranoid, back and forth, spiraling
Panic and emergency and siren
I should be confident instead I'm wilding
Feel like all my demons get together, start conspiring against me

All the things you said, all the things you said
Running through my head, running through my head
Running through my head
All the things you said, all the things you said
Running through my head, running through my head
All the things you said
You are stuck in my head
You are stuck in my head

I got a marathon mind, I keep on running through it
She left for the bathroom, I watched her walk into it
Left her phone unlocked, I told myself "don't do it"
Cause we all know nothing good will ever come from going through it
Paranoid by what you're doing when I'm gone
The voices in my head saying I should be moving on
When I start connecting dots and I assume you do me wrong
Send the text, it's way too long and be coming on too strong
And that's when I ask myself "What if I make it up?"
Calling back and hanging up, just to end up making up
Hooking back up and we end up right back fighting, breaking up
Trying to say it all at once, but I could never say enough when I'm ready

Keep running, keep running, keep running out
Keep running, keep running, keep running out
Keep running, keep running out through my head, through my head, through my
Keep running, keep running, keep running out
Keep running, keep running, keep running out
Keep running, keep running out through my head
Running through my head

All the things you said, all the things you said
Running through my head, running through my head
Running through my head
All the things you said, all the things you said
Running through my head, running through my head
All the things you said
You are stuck in my head

You are stuck in my head
