

In The Middle

G-Eazy

Woke up, got outta bed today (yeah)
I tried to type a text, but It's hard to find the words to say (yeah)
Feel like it isn't worth it
I should move on, I should find a new babe (a new one)
You keep actin' like you're perfect
But the smile that you wear is too fake, it's too fake
Wish it could feel the same again, old wounds
But we're feelin' the pain again
Your eyes will never see me the same again
And every time I think we're fixed, we just break again, yeah,
uh
And it might be too late to meet in the middle, yeah
But before you go, can you wait just a little? Yeah
This love's a ghost of what it used to be, yeah
But let me hold you close one last time, play pretend with me
Play pretend, play pretend
Play pretend, yeah
Just play pretend, play pretend
Play pretend
Yeah, uh, it's 6 AM, tonight became today, fuck
Uh, rock bottom, this feel like a doomsday
But can you tell how far apart we've both become? Yeah
We both are numb, so far removed from where we begun
I wish, I wish, yeah
Wish it could feel the same again, old wounds
But we're feelin' the pain again
Your eyes will never see me the same again
And every time I think we're fixed, we just break again, yeah,
uh
And it might be too late to meet in the middle, yeah
But before you go, can you wait just a little? Yeah
This love's a ghost of what it used to be, yeah
But let me hold you close one last time, play pretend with me
Play pretend, play pretend
Play pretend, yeah
Just play pretend, play pretend
Play pretend
