No More

G-Eazy

Damn, man
Dolla $ign, Dolla $ign, Dolla $ign, Dolla $ign

Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Said all I can, can't say it no more
I tried so hard, can't try no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more, yeah

I'm really 'bout to lose my mind the shit I've had up to here
All the stress you put me through, wish I made that disappear
Think it's time we set some boundaries, let's just establish this here
We've been through it, that's a lot of shit that happened this year
Need someone to talk to like I wish Mac was still here
No Louis, but I can tell that you got baggages clear
You moved out, but you still be gettin' packages here
Used to save the limelights, you won't let that inner fear
But seems like you actin' different when some rappers is here
Shakin' ass all in the club like how you dance in the mirror
You was listenin' to your girlfriends who you had in your ear
And she know everything to ask her why her man isn't here, for real

Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Said all I can, can't say it no more
I tried so hard, can't try no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more, yeah

I'm fed up (Oh, yeah)
Fed up (Oh, yeah)
I'm fed up (Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Fed up (Ooh, yeah)

Yeah, uh, I reached my limit, you pushed me to the edge
To the point where you send text and I leave you on read
Wait, you ain't catchin' what I said?
If you think that you went up on me, I'm twenty steps ahead
Don't ask me what's my move 'cause it's on, fuck you
'Cause you play games and, just for that, girl, I can't trust you
I said it's just to make a point, yeah, my heart told me to make this joint
We've been broken long before this breaking point, you know

Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Said all I can, can't say it no more
I tried so hard, can't try no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more
Sometimes I just can't take it no more, yeah

Sometimes I just hit that point, I'm like, I can- I can't do this anymore
You're only breakin' me down, you're not buildin' me up
It's too much
