Oh yeah, I don't wanna wait for another day
Can't believe I didn't see you right in front of me

Wow, last night really got away (ay)
Woke up at six ain't seen the sun today
But, still thanking God I saw another day (ay)
I check my phone and try to run a play
You say I drink too much, I think you think too much
I hate that everytime we talk I'm always in a rush
You live across the universe and you ain't lit as us
Well, I guess that's just what the difference was
If you could see my face
Last time we had talked I thought you needed space
Thought you wanted me erased,yeah
You said you thought you wanted me erased (ay, ay)

Oh no, I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Said that you were gonna ride for me until the end
Say you love me but I know that it was just pretend
You only want me cause I'm making m's
