

Be Your Man

G Flip

If you think that you're happy
It ain't true
I see you out with them other boys
That ain't you

Your eyes give off secrets
I'm no fool
Uh

I'm stupid for you
But that's nothing new

Sorry it's the way you're hurting
What made you think that you deserve it?
Caught between what you think is right
And what you want

I understand
'Cause I get you emotionally
I'm not a man
But I can if you want me to be

I know how you think
And what you like
And what your body needs
Convinced you should run from me

I'm not what you planned
But I'll be your man

You are more than a moment
To work through
And I am no one night lover
I want you

Your eyes give off secrets
I'm no fool
Oh, but I'm stupid for you
But that is nothing new

Sorry it's the way you're hurting
What made you think that you deserve it?
Caught between what you think is right
And what you want

I understand
'Cause I get you emotionally
I'm not a man
But I can if you want me to be

I know how you think
And what you like
And what your body needs
Convinced you should run from me

I'm not what you planned
But I'll be your man

I understand

I understand

'Cause I get you emotionally

I'm not a man

But I can if you want me to be

I know how you think (How you think)

And what you like (What you like)

And what your body needs (What your body needs)

Convinced you should run from me

I'm not what you planned

But I'll be your man
