

I'D RATHER GO TO BED

G Flip

Would you'd believe it
If I said I'm crumbling down
I'm defeated, rather just stare at the ground
I know what's needed
Time with my pillow crown
Time with my pillow crown

My dreams run all night long
Walking round like King Kong
Only place I feel strong
Where my cheeks are dry
Days no longer feel right
Holding open my eyes
Trying hard to feel highs
Have I lost my mind

Everyday I feel alone
If I'm honest
But at night I am my throne
If I'm honest

I'd rather go to bed
There's a mess up in my head
If I'm honest
I'd rather go to bed
Yeah this day I fucking dread
If I'm honest

There's nowhere else I'd rather be
Then swimming in my lucid dreams
I'm happier when I'm asleep
I'd rather go to bed
Wouldn't be anywhere instead
If I'm honest

Would you believe it
If I said I'm broke inside
I'm depleted
Rather just stay in and hide
I know what's needed
Time with a lullaby
Time with a lullaby

Everyday I feel alone
If I'm honest
But at night I am my throne
If I'm honest

I'd rather go to bed
There's a mess up in my head
If I'm honest
I'd rather go to bed
If I'm honest

There's nowhere else I'd rather be

I'm happier when I'm asleep
I'd rather go to bed

I just want to live in dreams
I like life better in my sleep
I just want to live in dreams
I like life better in my sleep

I'd rather go to bed
If I'm honest
I'd rather go to bed
If I'm honest

There's nowhere else I'd rather be
Then swimming in my lucid dreams
I'm happier when I'm asleep
I'd rather go to bed
If I'm honest
