

Unapologetic

G Flip

Got glasses to hide my nose
They turn me blind I know
Used to hate on my self but as I got older
Skin grew thicker and the shower got colder
I used to hate my nose

You won't say that to a friend
So don't say it to yourself then
I like the mole on your lip and the scar on your shoulder
What's inside is gonna win them all over
Lets put that voice to rest

Just be unapologetic
No one in the world is perfect
Your naked all in underwear
All covered up, oh, I don't care
Just be unapologetic

If no one told you today
Your enough in every way
No one is you that's a superpower
Take the ring and feel flower
I'm not the first to say

Just be unapologetic
No one in the world is perfect
Your naked all in underwear
All covered up, oh, I don't care
Just be unapologetic
