G Herbo

G Herbo yeah man I know when I feel like all my day one fans, supporters they know that everything that happened to me was fully organic it ain't nothing forced it ain't no fly by night shit it meant to be something real and it's gon be something real.

Alot of time my fans try to say with music I wanna make 'em wa it not tryna make 'em late but, ain't even the case I'm tryna really change the world with this shit the way I drop shit it's like a system, its systematic I try and give it to you but its a meaning. It's a meaning behind why I give it you you, when I give it to you and what I'ma give to you next

Look, they say a coward die a thousand deaths (fuck nigga)
And every time you and try and kill him why its always a thousand left? (fuck nigga)

I heard a real nigga die come back a thousand times

Go broke now 999 count up a thousand times

And these is real facts I ain't just saying that

What if Fred Hamp was president I woke up praying that 'Cause if Trump become the president he might bring slavery back

Been on black folks eighty years might as well bring Reagan back

Meanwhile, I'm just riding with this desert eagle

Smoking weed riding fast like that shit not illegal

And if I fly past you fast yeah just know I see you

I can't pull up on fuck niggas no you not my people

And I'm for the people

But I'm not the most

Bitch I just die for my bros that's all I know

Live and I die by the code

My niggas ride by the code die for the code

Shit I did time for the code

If the folks pack up and say they come get me now

Before I rat I'ma lie down and roll

Lay down and die before I fold

Hoes and bankrolls, ain't nothing but a bonus

Everybody know that my la familia is who its happening for

Promoters like Herb you ain't dropped in a year

25 thousand too high for a show

The less you in town the less shots that I hear

At least y'all I ain't out here in traffic no more

Gang!

Gang gang, ay, G Herbo man, ay, nah for real though the reason behind this shit why I named this whole project Strictly 4 My Fans is cause that's who this shit for, strictly for my fans, the reason why I get the motivation cause I be going through my comments all type of shit on instagram and motherfuckers tell me the shit I be spitting in the music just the way it touch them it change motherfuckers lives, it really get motherfuckers thr ough certain types of situations and other shit and I'm still h aving fun with this shit you know. So that's why I really just put this shit together man strictly for my fans, for the street s, for my niggas I just write it all as my fans cause a lot of my fans street niggas, real niggas. As far as fan shit its stri ctly for my fans worldwide its strictly for the street real nig gas you already know what's going on man
