I told lil' bitch, bring a friend 'n slide
We fuck around, vibe, spend 100 bucks
I pulled to the valet scratching the slide
I was hitting the gas and gripping the clutch
I did this shit at least five-ten times, like how the fuck they thought it was luck?
Blood, sweat and tears, I'm the one that can't sleep at night, but they say
I don't give no fuck
I pull up, they be knowing what's up, everybody on us, I be already drunk
Humbug in the club, and spend a lil' dub, your bitch walking up, tryna get in the truck
Rocking all the ice, we already lit up, and we got every whip, we'll pull that shit up
Baby know she a dime, spending all my time, too much money online, I gotta get up

Flexing, I flex like I do sit-ups
This shit no bap, can't boost it up
I was that nigga before I could rap
I was that nigga that made it happen
I was getting money before I could trap
I thank God I blew up
Gotta thank God I grew up
Wasn't even worrying about fifty cent
Young, hitting nigga with them
Bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah, bah

Man, lil' bro, I remember that day like yesterday
It's like you knew it was your time to blow
You called your dad to tell him you ain't going back to school because you w anna take this rap shit more serious

He telling you shit like a normal dad would
"Hell nah, you gotta go to school, what if plan A don't work? What's plan B?
You told him "Ain't no plan B 'cause plan A gon' work"
And since that day, you've been unstoppable in this rap shit
