

Strong

Gabby Barrett

I've heard dependence is weak
That I shouldn't need anybody else
They say a powerful girl
Can conquer the world if she's by herself

My roots run deep and my heart and soul's with them
And I'm flyin' higher than I've ever been 'cause

Lovin' somebody more than my own breath
Knowin' that I'm right where he belongs, oh
Bein' home in the arms of my best friend
Where the light always stays on
That's where I feel strong, oh
That's where I feel strong, oh

When I was a kid, I'd dream of the lights
And spent my whole life trying to chase 'em down
Then I met you, it's changin' the view
The things that I need look different now

I've put my heart into your hands forever
And it's beatin' louder than ever

Lovin' somebody more than my own breath
Knowin' that I'm right where he belongs, oh
Bein' home in the arms of my best friend
Where the light always stays on
That's where I feel strong, oh
That's where I feel strong, oh
That's where I feel strong, yeah
That's where I feel strong, oh

I've heard dependence is weak
That I shouldn't need anybody else
Oh whoa, woah

Lovin' somebody more than my own breath
Knowin' that I'm right where he belongs, oh
Bein' home in the arms of my best friend
Where the light always stays on
That's where I feel strong, oh
That's where I feel strong, oh
