

By Your Side

Gabe Bondoc

You think that I'd leave your side, baby?
You know me better than that
Think I'd let you down
When you're down on your knees?

I wouldn't do that
I'll do right when you're wrong
I'll, oh
And if only you can see into me

Oh, when you call
I'll be there
To hold you tight to me

When you're on the outside, baby
When you can't get in
I'll show you, you're so much better
Than you know

When you are lost, when you're alone
Yeah, you can't get back again
I will find you, darling and I'll bring you back

And if you wanna cry
I'll be here to dry your eyes
Listen baby, and in time you'll be fine

You think that I'd leave your side, baby?
You know me better than that
Think I'd let you down
When you're down on your knees?

I wouldn't do that
I'll do you right when you're wrong
I'll, oh
And if only you could see into me

Oh, when you're cold
I'll be there
To hold you tight
To me

Oh, when you're alone
I'll be there
By your side, baby
