

Pine Trees

Gabriel Black

See I'm locked in a box in my head
And the pine trees are taller than they ever been
See I'm locked in a box in my head
And the pine trees are taller than they ever been

Been a year since I fucked, hour since I came
Only fuck with myself, I don't care I'm fuckin' lame
Maybe that's why I been down, always feelin' so depressed
I don't feel sad no more, the emotion left my chest
Burnin' like the cigs I put out on my skin
Throats closin' up, I think I might just vomit again
Dry heave, I ain't ate all day
But I killed another pack, my lungs black like a cave

See I'm locked in a box in my head
And the pine trees are taller than they ever been
See I'm locked in a box in my head
And the pine trees are taller than they ever been

I hit you always on that late night
Swervin' through the hills on a dirt bike
Mask on, baby, I'm a dark knight
Never needed no one, keep my circle on that skin tight
Smoking hella boags, I make rivers with the spit
Never needed hoes, I got you and all your shit
Always down to go, I keep the dagger on my hip
If we never make it out, they'll write about us when we're dead
, oh

See I'm locked in a box in my head
And the pine trees are taller than they ever been
See I'm locked in a box in my head
And the pine trees are taller than they ever been
