

Angelhead

Gabriel Rios

Pretty Little Demon lets me call her Angelhead sometimes when I see her she is lying next to me in bed we be there late at night she's saying nothing's right she says it's all messed up and feels like giving up just giving up just giving up peaking in the red like we're squeezing 'till we're dead like there's nothing else instead but the bleeding 'till it's bled the tv's on the floor there is someone at the door the sun has just come up and me and Angelhead keep making love a little love

I'm not ready for this world so let me be goodnight
goodnight Angelhead

goodnight Angelhead see you in the morning got to keep believing got to keep it going it's gonna be alright just got to hold on tight it's gonna go on even if you really wanna make it stop it never does cause I'm a pagan you're a pagan together will we get around we hear the same sounds breaking the mind dissing our kind plus we feel the love come from above and if the whole thing finally breaks we'll make it up just make it up

goodnight

who am I to keep this going who are you to bring me down goodnight Angelhead (5x)
