I WANT A HEARTBREAK

Gabriela Bee

I'm done being fine
Wasting my time
But it's not like I need a reason
To try
A new set of eyes
Staring at mine
Making me feel some feelings
I've heard it's better to love and lose

I want a heartbreak
I want a heartbreak
Fall for the real thing
Learn it the hard way

Give me the good the bad the worst
I want a love until it hurts
I want a heartbreak
I want a heartbreak

Singing along to the sad songs
Still kinda feels wrong
Cause I don't know those emotions
Yet and I'm tired
Of trying to cry when
It sounds like the singer is dying inside
Cause I don't relate to relationships sinking
I wish I was missing someone

Cause I want a heartbreak
I want a heartbreak
Fall for the real thing
Learn it the hard way

Give me the good the bad the worst
I want a love until it hurts
I want a heartbreak
I want a heartbreak

I've heard it's better to love and lose
(I've heard it's better to love)
Wish I had the chance to even choose
