I like to like things
'Cause so many things are amazing
But don't let me stop ya hating
I'll be over here with kids who ain't afraid to sing
I like to like things
And sometimes I love to love stuff
Kinda even like the haters
'Cause they just remind me why I, I, I, I

I like people
'Cause everybody's got a story when you first meet 'em
And every story's got a more lower deep meaning
'Cause sometimes there's a surprise punchline
That I met you every time, speaking of
I like to laugh
I laugh even harder when the jokes are bad
Sometimes I even laugh when my life is sad
I laugh so loud that my friends get mad
And nothings more funny than that

It's easy to get cynical
Life is so unpredictable, ooh

I like to like things
'Cause so many things are amazing
But don't let me stop ya hating
I'll be over here with kids who ain't afraid to sing
I like to like things
And sometimes I love to love stuff
Kinda even like the haters
'Cause they just remind me why I, I, I, I

I like places
I like seeing all the new beautiful faces
I like to find the weirdest food so that I can taste it
I like to learn the curses
In every language, and speaking of
I like to talk
Coffee talk, crazy talk, church talk
All as a hat I just like to chat
Pull out the welcome mat, any subject that's About things you like, I love that, yeah

It's easy to get cynical
Life is so unpredictable
But in general

I like to like things
'Cause so many things are amazing
But don't let me stop ya hating
I'll be over here with kids who ain't afraid to sing
I like to like things (Things)
And sometimes I love to love stuff (Stuff)
Kinda even like the haters (Haters)
'Cause they just remind me why I, I, I, I

It's easy to get cynical

Life is so unpredictable, ooh

I like to like things

'Cause so many things are amazing

But don't let me stop ya hating

I'll be over here with kids who ain't afraid to sing

I like to like things (I like things)

I love to love stuff (I love stuff)

I like to like things

So I'll be over here with kids who ain't afraid to sing

(Hahahahaha)
