

Awake

Gabrielle Aplin

I got my reasons for the things I do but I get lost in my defense when I am running after you
There must be something in what you don't say
'cause I can't get past all the feelings that you left me with today

Please stay awake now, please stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes
Please stay awake now, just stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes

You lock yourself up behind "I love you"
Is that the truth, and what you feel will just convenient for you
And when you tell them that you can't complain
Is that the state of our affairs? Is it November again?

Please stay awake now, just stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes
Please stay awake now, just stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes

Just stay awake now, please stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes
Just stay awake now, please stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes

Please stay awake now, just stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes
Please stay awake now, just stay awake now
You are as closed as your eyes

I'm like an enemy that you don't know
You keep me close, but in the distance we look better off alone
Make me remember like I'm all brand new Like when the world was out of focus, and I blamed it on you
