

If You Don't Believe

Gabrielle Aplin

One, not one, day I'll be waiting
But I'll be waiting
Few of us could take the aching
Your heart was breaking

Why don't we offer our differences
Somewhere underneath we're the same
How can you cover your promises if you don't believe in yourself
Cuz I don't believe in myself
Anymore

One by one, my thoughts were feeding
Our souls were meeting
Break by break, I saw you falling
Our love was calling

But don't we offer
Our differences
Somewhere underneath we're the same
How can you cover
Your promises
If you don't believe in yourself
Cuz I don't believe in myself
Anymore

But don't we offer
Our differences
Somewhere underneath we're the same
How can you cover
Your promises
If you don't believe in yourself
Cuz I don't believe in myself
Yeah we don't believe in much else
Anymore
