

Imagining

Gabrielle Aplin

Close my eyes 'cause here
Don't have to be controlling my desires
In my mind it's us
And staying here is better than real life

I live a lie, live a lie every night
And every night every night on my mind
A fantasy I like I know isn't right
But staying here is better than real life

I'm imagining
I-imagining
Can't stop thinking 'bout you, thinking 'bout you now
I'm imagining
I-imagining
And I'm hoping you'll figure it out

(I'm imagining
I-imagining
Can't stop thinking 'bout you, thinking 'bout you now)
I'm imagining
(I-imagining
And I'm hoping you'll figure it out)

Do you feel the same?
'Cause I'm thinking 'bout you thinking of me now
Whispering your name
What would happen if I thought of you out loud?

I live a lie, live a lie every night
And every night, every night on my mind
A fantasy I like I know isn't right
But staying here is better than real life

I'm imagining
I-imagining
Can't stop thinking 'bout you, thinking 'bout you now
I'm imagining
I-imagining
And I'm hoping you'll figure it out

(I'm imagining
I-imagining
Can't stop thinking 'bout you, thinking 'bout you now)
I'm imagining
(I-imagining
And I'm hoping you'll figure it out)

I'm imagining
I-imagining
Can't stop thinking 'bout you, thinking 'bout you now
I'm imagining
I-imagining
And I'm hoping you'll figure it out

(I'm imagining
I-imagining

Can't stop thinking 'bout you, thinking 'bout you now)
I'm imagining
(I-imagining
And I'm hoping you'll figure it out)
