

Skylight

Gabrielle Aplin

Stuck in a haze
Couldn't be better
It's all I ever wanted
Lets stay here forever
Life gets so loud
We don't need to listen
You make me feel like Friday
When I'm Sunday PM

Lets climb out through the skylight
We can watch the sunset fall into the nighttime
Then roll into the sunrise
Slowly

We don't need to rush this feeling, feeling
Trying is a waste of time
We don't need to rush, just breathe out, breathe in
Flying is a state of mind

Visions of you
Fade into me
I never have the words
But you unravel them free
I'm paper thin
Rolled up in your love
Lighting me emerald
As you're lifting me up

Let's climb out through the skylight
We can watch the sunset falling for the last time
Then breathe into the sunrise
Holy

We don't need to rush this feeling, feeling
Trying is a waste of time
We don't need to rush, just breathe out, breathe in
Flying is a state of mind

We don't need to rush, 'cause trying is a waste of time

We don't need to rush this feeling feeling
Trying is a waste of time
We don't need to rush just breathe out, breathe in
Flying is a state of mind

Stuck in a haze
Couldn't be better
It's all I ever wanted
Let's stay here forever
