So Far so Good

Gabrielle Aplin

I didn't notice you, I was preoccupied
There was a crowd around and I didn't like you
No lie, but you won me over with your smile
(Better late than never, better late than never)
I listened to your songs, you talked your way through mine
Thought you were arrogant, nut then you read my mind
When you said, "This is lame should we both go back to mine?"
(Better late than never, better late than never)

We've come so far
And so far, it's been out of sight
We've come so far
And so far, it's been what I like
We've come so far
And so far, so good
So good, so good, so good, so good

Far, we, are we, are we?
Yeah we've come so far
Are we, are we, are we
Drivin' a Ferrari
Are we, are we?
'Cause we've come so far, we, are we?

We've come so far
And so far, it's been out of sight
We've come so far
And so far, it's been what I like
We've come so far
And so far, so good
So good, so good, so good, so good

It was a crowded room, and you were hard to find
You said I light it up, and then I rolled my eyes
No lie, then you kissed me, and you blew my mind
(Better late than never, better late than never)

Now all I know is you
And after all this time I can't even imagine
A world without you, no lie
'Cause you're so good, so good, so good, so good

Far, we, are we, are we?
Yeah we've come so far
Are we, are we, are we
Drivin' a Ferrari
Are we, are we?
'Cause we've come so far, we, are we?

We've come so far
And so far, it's been out of sight
We've come so far
And so far, it's been what I like
We've come so far
And so far, so good
So good, so good, so good, so good

We've come so far
And so far, it's been out of sight
Caught me off guard
I blinked and I realized
This is forever
How lucky am I?
So good, so good, so good, so good

We've come so far
And so far, it's been out of sight
We've come so far
And so far, it's been what I like
We've come so far
And so far, so good
So good, so good, so good, so good
