

Fallen Angel

Gabrielle

Sky is wide; trees are burnt,
Been a while since you stood here,
You feel cold, so alone,
Yet the wind whispers 'hello' and it blows,
When it blows...

'Fallen angel, with shattered dreams,
Trying to make some sense of all you've seen,
Let it go, let it go, troubled soul,
Let it go, let it go...'

Wounded spirit, troubled soul,
Fallen angel, let it all go,
Just believe and you will see,
All the good things your life can be...

And this dusk turns to dawn,
Still you're battered in your thoughts,
You feel lost, so alone,
And you wonder can you carry on,

How amazing your life would be,
If you held on, long enough to see,
Let it go, let it go, troubled soul,
Let it go, let it go...

Wounded spirit, troubled soul,
Fallen angel, let it all go,
Just believe and you will see,
All the good things your life can be...

Fallen angel, you've made mistakes,
You can't keep living your life this way,

Let it go, let it go, troubled soul,
Let it go, let it go...

Wounded spirit, troubled soul,
Fallen angel, just let it all go,
Just believe and you will see,
All the good things your life can be...
Wounded spirit, troubled soul,
Fallen angel, just let it all go,
Just believe and you will see,
All the good things your life can be...

Let it go, let it go, troubled soul,
Let it go, troubled soul,
Let it go, let it go, troubled soul,
Let it go, let it go...
