

Good Enough

Gabrielle

Only you know when you're ready
Ready to come out from the dark
Doesn't matter what others are thinking
You gotta follow your heart

Ooooh
And now the time is right
Oohhh
It's not the time to hide
You don't need no ones approval
It's time to live your life

You need to start believing
That you're good enough
You need to start showing
Showing yourself the love
I'm hoping you remember
Whenever life gets tough
You should never ever
Never ever give up

You need to stop with those excuses
You've hidden behind them for too long
You're the one that could move mountains
Remember when you were that strong

Ooooh
And now the time is right
Oohhh
It's not the time to hide
You don't need no ones approval
It's time to live your life

You need to start believing
That you're good enough
You need to start showing
Showing yourself the love
I'm hoping you remember
Whenever life gets tough
You should never ever
Never ever give up

You need to start believing
That you're good enough
You need to start showing
Showing yourself the love
I'm hoping you remember
Whenever life gets tough
You should never ever
Never ever give up
