

Signs

Gabrielle

How many times do I have to say I love you
How many times will I keep on getting nothing back
I don't understand what it is you want
But I'm clearly not the one that you love
Oh, won't you hit me with the truth
I deserve that from you

I've tried everything
But I can't erase the hurt

I never seem to know what you're feeling
I've never been good at reading your mind
Always second guessing your reasons
Come on, now, we can't ignore the signs

I guess it's time to realize what I need to do
'Cause you've been holding back while I've been wasting time on you
I guess we're at the stage, admit it's not the same
But now you've hit me with the truth
Maybe I'm not for you

I've tried everything
But I can't erase the hurt, no, no, no, no

I never seem to know what you're feeling
I've never been good at reading your mind
Always second guessing your reasons
Come on, now, we can't ignore the signs

I wish you would've been more honest
I wish I would've known
Wish you would've told me sooner

Would've let you go
Wish I would've known
Wish I would've known
Wish I would have known

Would've let you go
Wish I would've known
Wish I would've known

Never seem to know what, ah, you're feeling
I've never been good at reading your signs
Always second guessing
Come on, come on, can't ignore the signs

Never been good at reading your mind
Never been good at reading the signs
