

Counting Scars

Gabz

My heart seems to break at first
The first time that I cried, first to apologise
Can't ever get it right
I guess I messed it up again

Flashback to the things that I regret
Flashback to the things I can't forget

Maybe it's just me am I the one to blame
Maybe it's just me I've messed it up again

My heart seems to stop for a second
Second guessing my life for the second time
Can't ever get it right
I guess I messed it up again
My heart skipped a beat the third night
The third fight, the third time that I've lied
Can't ever get it right
I guess I messed it up again

Flashback to the things that I regret
Flashback to the things I can't forget

Maybe it's just me am I the one to blame
Maybe it's just me I've messed it up again

Taking four steps back from where I was before
Cause my heart can't take this no more
It's beating out my chest like four to the floor
As I fall to the floor I've messed it up for sure
And I, I find it hard to breathe
But I'm still on my feet

Maybe it's just me am I the one to blame
Maybe it's just me I've messed it up again
